

Your preferred control system – our proven power unit

xPack – The Intelligent Package

As an integrated, complete system with your preferred control system and our proven power unit, the xPack offers considerable time savings, reduces costs, and ensures high operational reliability. Whether for new construction or modernization – with xPack, you get a fully coordinated and pre-parametrized system that is ready to connect.

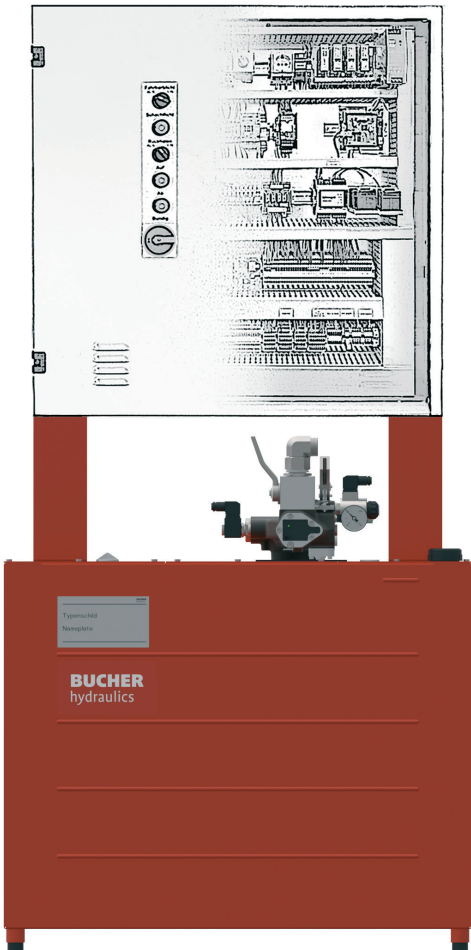

Your xPack advantages

- Flexibility – free choice of control system
- Innovation – pre-parametrized, ready to connect
- Efficiency – ready for use and cost-reducing
- Simplicity – saves time during planning, assembly, and commissioning
- Reliability – high operational safety thanks to proven components

Two components – one harmonized system

xPack system

Save up to 50% in energy
– With modernization

Fits into any nook
– Low overall height (depending on control cabinet)

For standard elevators
– Up to 7 stops, 1000 kg, 0.63 m/s

Fast installation
– Pre-assembled cabling
– Self-adjusting valve
– Harmonized components

Remote access possible
– Optional: Access to valve with CANopen via controls

Scope of delivery:
– Comfort Line power unit
– Intelligent valve iValve

Choose “your” control system – Elevator control in the control cabinet – Standard control panels for cabin and door frame
– Complete cabling for machine room, shaft, and cabin

Width mm	Depth mm	Hight mm	Weight kg	Max. performance kW	Max. flow rate l/min
870	304	Depending on control cabinet	125	20	250